Doc. 22
6-1-14

Ryde Isle of Wight
January 24: 1918

My dear Emily. I am so sorry I have not written to you for so long I meant to but, as I dare say you quite know, had nothing left to tell. News, had nothing left. "I am" We were so pleased to get Yours and Carol painted by herself!!! It is so sweet of him & remember us. It is such a long time in this life. I am sorry & Uncle & I & thank him for. How kind of His H. His Highness, sorry Lucy & Irene I don't know [illegible]

Mrs Brett. Who you remember - I was so glad & dear Jenn Lucy take Mrs Jenni that you were (so ill now. I had a letter Jenn May Campbell last long ago she seemed much better stupid to be quiet. stay by the spring I asked her several times & come stay with us in Sweden but, she was never all & do so. I am sorry but, hope she will come later, when we go back & Queen Maria's. Uncle we expect to do. Do write like me how you are. & Do you like a cot still! & I expect I am is a very good rider now. We had such a good boat. has he grown much? Her is Countenance falling as poor thing - Do you see much of

of Mr. Cobb! Do they have much tennis at the Residency?
I shall wish to have Dick there with you all. It was a very happy time for us - Thank you very much for your very kind card. Good wishes I have since had Mr. Warburton in town Mr. Warburton is very happy in Central India. I hear. I hope Mrs is well there is his wife. Do you see them since then? I get so many questions but once I start, there are so many people I would like to hear about in Baghdad & they are - With our Love & many messages from Hugh & you all. I wish so sorry that you fallen Mother had gone, I must they have had no letter. Yours affec / D. Dale done! She was looking forward so much to seeing you all at the Theddah. She told us in the train coming & Mysore - it was sweet of Mrs. Dale to see. We don't know yet what name it is. as the letter telling us about it. has been lost - I wonder if it is any where near you? I am sorry not to see little Mrs. Mrs. Dennie. Cattell in town, then gone away for some time & then Hugh was ill so I saw no one for a time Hugh is getting on very well but it is always a slow business. He must be all & fit Cash & work. Just yet. We are staying with Mrs Dalin